Halo Med Spa Social Media Policy

Halo Med Spa values the ability to cross-market and to reach new social media users on different social media platforms. We also value the representation of our brand properly. Our Social Media policy is intended to give you an outline of the expectations for posting as well as the ability to give you the opportunity to think before you post.

The Standards After 30 days
Please submit (1) weekly Vlog and (1) weekly post to our general manager by Saturday of each week.

Please ensure your post is free of spelling errors and has a quality that represents Halo Med Spa.

Please ensure that your appearance is within the scope of the Employee Dress code referenced in the employee handbook.

Please don't post content to your personal social media accounts that reference Halo Med Spa without getting it approved by our General Manager.

Please ensure you are properly presenting yourself on your personal social media in a way that would reflect Halo Med Spa and it's staff in a positive light. (ie. Your dress, language, your behavior etc.)

Halo Med Spa reserves the right to request you to remove a post that may be in violation of your signed Employee Handbook.

Encourage your social media followers to follow Halo Med Spa.

( ) I agree to the above standards of this Social Media Policy for Halo Med Spa. I understand that failing to abide by these standards may result in a write-up and possible termination of employment if timely action isn't taken.
